WHAT WE'RE TEACHING

Rad—A 4 week series from the Book of James on Loving Others | @ Basic

When Jesus was on earth, he had a lot to say about love, but not everyone loved him. Instead, Jesus' opponents hated him, attacked him, and saw him as extreme — dangerous — revolutionary — a radical. And they had a point! The things Jesus taught about loving God and loving others challenged the status quo and changed the world forever. That's pretty radical. In this 4-week series from the book of James, we'll look at four ways Jesus invites us to love according to his revolutionary example. These ideas might seem simple, but when we choose to listen more than we speak, refuse to play favorites, watch our words, and fight for peace, we'll see just how radical Jesus' teachings really are.

#churchhurt: life and faith with imperfect people—a semester long conversation from the book of Acts and Paul's letters | @ MERGE

When Jesus left earth, he established His church to be His hands and feet. He knew that the best way to live out His teachings was if we did it together. And right in the very beginning, the church experienced a lot of success. But soon, dysfunction, fighting, and bad theology worked it's way in. So, what do you do when the church fails? What do you do when the people you trusted fail? As we'll see from Acts and Paul's letters to the churches, we don't cut bait and run. Rather, we work to heal and live in the unity and love that Jesus said would mark us as His followers.

RESOURCE OF THE MONTH

Parenting is complicated. The lessons we teach (and lessons we learn) are not always what we expect. There are many resources that discuss how parents change their children, but SACRED PARENTING turns the tables to talk about how God uses children to change their parents.
