Resource of the Month: Parents as Disciplers (From CPYU)

Parents,
For the past two Sundays we have heard about the reality that we all are being formed by someone or something. The real question to ask is, "By what or whom am I being formed?"

We want to encourage you to continue to be a positive influence in the spiritual formation of your kids. So, here is an article and guide from the Center for Parent and Youth Understanding. We hope it blesses you as you continue to disciple your kids.
